

Websites and resources some people may want to check out –

Peace Wapiti School Division <http://www.pwsd76.ab.ca/Pages/default.aspx>

- PWSD Policy JC – School Councils -
<http://www.pwsd76.ab.ca/Resources/policies/Documents/jc.pdf>

Alberta Education has an area for parents where you will find documents ranging from helping your children succeed to information about School Councils as well.

<http://education.alberta.ca/>

Alberta Home and School Councils Association site contains a lot of relevant links and parent information as well. <http://www.albertaschoolcouncils.ca/>

There are some great anti-bullying materials at <http://www.bullyfreealberta.ca/materials.htm>

More bullying (anti-bullying) resource sites:

www.BullyingCanada.ca 2 youths who were bullied for years, one with cerebral palsy have started a website called www.BullyingCanada.ca It is a resource for victims, a voice and raises awareness. They also have a facebook site.

<http://www.bullyingawarenessnetwork.ca/>

www.teamheroes.ca which is targeted at children aged three to 11, www.b-free.ca was uniquely developed for youth by youth

www.bullyfreealberta.ca provides tools for parents to prevent or intervene in situations of bullying.

<http://www.tolerance.org/index.jsp> link to a great website that has lots of bully prevention info including different sections for teachers, parents, teens and kids.

Create a Movement

Alberta Health and Wellness launched the Create A Movement public awareness campaign in September 2007. This year, the focus shifts from awareness to action – getting children, youth, parents and other influencers to "join the movement" in communities and schools across the province. The Healthbusters team is available to come to junior and senior high schools in to help launch healthy eating and/or physical activity initiatives in support of school-based healthy living initiatives.

For more information on how the Healthbusters can help schools to promote healthy eating and/or physical activity, please go to www.healthyalberta.com/AboutHealthyU/727.htm or contact Althea Livingston at 780-644-8799 (toll-free by dialing 310-0000 first) or e-mail althea.livingston@gov.ab.ca

Great website for comparing drinks and healthy choices, etc. www.movingandchoosing.com

Access and sign up to The Parent Program™ at <http://www.theparentprogram.com/canalbsd76A2131.htm>

The Parent Program™ is a service that was requested by parents and a subscription was subsequently purchased by the Board for ALL parents in the Peace Wapiti School Division.

The Parent Program™ info says it is designed to help parents become more skilled and more able to deal with issues as they arise, while raising their children and youth to fulfill their own full potential.