

Local PD Opportunity:

Mamawhitowin “Coming Together” Conference

About	This conference provides opportunities to enhance your foundational knowledge of First Nations, Inuit and Métis people. By gathering with school districts within Northern Alberta, you are also provided the opportunity to network with people in your area. Learn more & register here: https://nrlc.net/conference/97
When & Where	October 17 & 18, 2019 - Option to register for one or two days. Stonebridge Hotel, Grande Prairie.
Audience	Teachers, Educational Assistants, Administrators, School Council Members, School Board Trustees, CASS Members, Indigenous Support Workers.
Keynotes	Aaron Paquette	Goota Desmarais

And more presenters from the area to learn from and build relationships!

Memorial Bench:

Commemorating those impacted by the Residential School System

Read Article

Bench unveiled to memorialize those impacted by residential schools

Peter Shokeir

More from Peter Shokeir

Published on: September 30, 2019 | Last Updated: September 30, 2019 6:09 PM EDT

Left to right: Michelle Grant, Leonard Cardinal and Amanda Cardinal stand before a memorial bench that will recognize and honour those impacted by residential schools during Orange Shirt Day at Muskoseepi Park in Grande Prairie, Alta. on Monday, Sept. 30, 2019. PETER SHOKEIR / DAILY HERALD-TRIBUNE

Memorial Stone:

Commemorating Missing & Murdered Indigenous Women, Girls, 2S+ and their Families.

Read Article

